

Yucca Weekly Update

Councilmember Joyce Clark - City of Glendale, Arizona

Yucca District - where Glendale's past, present and future meet.

January 29, 2010

Glendale Chocolate Affaire. Chocolate purveyors from Arizona and around the nation gather in Glendale for the award-winning Glendale Chocolate Affaire, Feb. 5-7. The festival celebrates not only chocolate, but romance and the arts as well.

The Chocolate Affaire is sponsored by Arizona's famous candy makers, Cerreta's. The candy factory will offer tours all weekend, so visitors can get a behind-the-scenes look at how the chocolatiers create everyone's favorite candy.

The festival has become the largest gathering of national romance novelists in the Southwest. This symposium of literary romantics offers fans the opportunity to get up close and personal with authors, as well as the chance to attend free writing workshops given by the experts.

Families with children will enjoy myriad activities, including hands-on arts and crafts, face-painting and a rock-climbing wall. Horse-drawn carriage rides will be available to take couples or families on a scenic, charming ride through the historic Catlin Court district.

Event hours are Friday 5 to 10 p.m., Saturday 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. and Sunday noon to 5 p.m. The event is located in the heart of Historic Downtown Glendale, in Murphy Park, located at 58th and Glendale avenues.

The Glendale Chocolate Affaire is sponsored by Cerreta's Candy Company, Kokopelli Winery, 3-TV KTVK, The Arizona Republic, YooHoo, KMLE, KOOL and JAMZ.

Lunch at the Landfill – You are Invited! City of Glendale residents are invited to a ribbon-cutting ceremony at the newly completed Glendale Gas-to-Energy facility at the Glendale Landfill. Join us on Saturday, January 30 from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the Glendale Municipal Landfill, 11480 W. Glendale Avenue.

Learn how the city of Glendale is working in partnership to provide an alternative source of energy in an effort to help the environment. The event will feature tours of the Landfill, Recycling and Gas-to-Energy facilities, interactive educational activities and a lunch cook-out.

ARRA Improvements for Historic Downtown Glendale. Historic downtown Glendale will get a mini facelift thanks to the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act (ARRA), which will fund an alleyway/pedestrian improvement in front of some of the downtown's oldest businesses positioned just east of 58th and Glendale avenues.

This alley pedestrian and landscaping beautification project will include new brick pavers, landscaping, enhanced pedestrian lighting and benches. The improvements will create access and exposure for the businesses along the alley, and an upgraded access to other busy destinations such as the Glendale Civic Center, Glendale City Hall and Festivals.

Construction is scheduled to begin in Feb. 2010 with a completion scheduled for the end of April 2010. The public is invited to an open house at 7 p.m., Thursday, Feb. 4 to learn more about the project. The meeting will take place at the Glendale City Hall Council Chambers, room B-3. Boards and Commissions. The Glendale City Council has appointed several residents to serve on advisory boards and commissions. Congratulations and many thanks to all who have volunteered to serve.

Glendale's 18 boards and commissions assist the City Council in making important policy decisions that impact the community. These volunteer citizen advisory groups research, study and discuss specific Glendale projects and issues and then forward their recommendations to the City Council.

To request an application to serve on a city advisory group or for more information, call the Council Office at (623) 930-2249 or click here. Board and commission members must reside in Glendale.

Glendale Public Library Celebrates Black History Month. During February, all three Glendale libraries will have special displays and items to check out on Black history, including events and people.

Two free events are scheduled:

Thursday, Feb. 4, at 7 p.m. – Blues performer Big Pete Pearson comes to Live at the Library and proves why he is one of the “best of the best.” Live at the Library is held at the Glendale Main Library Auditorium. Call (623) 930-3573 for more information.

Tuesday, Feb. 16, at 7 p.m. – Kitabu Reading Loom is dedicated to reading and discussing literature by or about people of African descent. This month's book is Same Kind of Different As Me by Ron Hall and Denver Moore. Lives intersecting in a homeless shelter result in an unlikely friendship. Call (623) 930-3566 for more information about the book group. The group meets in the small meeting room of Glendale Main Library.

Library locations: Glendale Main Library, 5959 W. Brown St.; Foothills Branch Library, 19055 N. 57th Ave.; and Velma Teague Branch Library, 7010 N. 58th Ave.
